Re: Federal Trade Commission v. Cephalon, Inc., No. 08-2141 (MSG) (E.D. Pa.)

Dear Judge Restrepo:

By order entered January 21, 2011, Judge Goldberg referred three pretrial motions to Your Honor for disposition: Defendant Cephalon, Inc.'s Motion To Compel Production of Documents from Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission (doc. no. 84); Third-Party Pharmaceutical Companies' Motion To Intervene (doc. no. 87); and Third-Party Pharmaceutical Companies' Motion for Protective Order (doc. no. 88).

On February 4, 2011, Cephalon filed an additional submission (doc. no. 124), which seeks relief not requested in its initial motion to compel. Because this submission proposes relief that Cephalon did not set forth in its original motion, the Federal Trade Commission intends to file a response by February 22, 2011, in accordance with the court's scheduling order.

Sincerely,
